Terms

- A twenty-five percent deposit is required to hold your wedding date. Twenty-five percent is due one month prior to the wedding date, with the remaining fifty percent and applicable sales tax due before the wedding date. The initial deposit is refundable for thirty days. In the event of a postponement or cancellation of the wedding after thirty days, no refunds will be given.
- No part of any order will be delivered until the balance is paid in full.
- Interest will be added to any unpaid balances following the date of the wedding or the placement of an order at a rate of 1.5% monthly. There is a $30 charge for a check returned from the bank for any reason. Checks returned as not paid may be collected electronically.
- The studio reserves the right to use negatives, digital images and reproductions for displays, publications, promotion or other purposes. Negatives and rights to all images remain the exclusive property of the photographer.
- It is understood that the photographer named in the contract is the exclusive official photographer, and others will be permitted to take photographs of posed groups or individuals only at the discretion of the photographer.
- Although all care will be taken with negatives and photographs, the photographer limits any liability for loss, damage or failure to deliver photographs for any reason. Liability is limited to the return of all deposits.
